17th SILICON SAXONY DAY

JUNE 21, 2023

With over 400 participants, Silicon Saxony Day is Saxony's premier ICT and networking conference. Join the event for cross-industry networking, knowledge & technology transfer and an open exchange on ICT technologies and their use.

This year, everything revolves around technology islands where participants, experts and exhibitors meet to exchange ideas, get first-hand best practices, or discuss current trends and demonstrators. Because it is only possible to connect, exchange ideas and grow together.
